BendPak's Low-Rise Lifts are Your Solution for Quick Service

High-density UHMW rollers make the LR-60P a conveniently portable low-rise lift. If you're regularly shifting car lifts to different service bays or have limited space you need to diversify, a portable car lift will make your garage operations that much smooth. It sounds amazing, but it's true: you can actually move the LR-60P anywhere in your garage, all by yourself. It's an incredibly convenient car lift variation we're proud to include in the LR-60 family.
